

introducing THE CARLTON COMMUNITY NETWORK

mission

Carlton Community Network (CCN) members work collaboratively to improve positive connections, support, and access to services for the diverse community of Carlton.

benefits of participation

The network connects approximately 50 agencies and community based organisations, groups and support services from different sectors who focus on or have a presence in the Carlton community.

We meet 6 times a year, bi-monthly, rotating at agencies around Carlton. We have an email list to distribute up to date information from across the network. This is a great way to promote your organisation's activities and hear from others.

CCN information is disseminated to members and has a focus on advocacy, government policy, funding opportunities, community trends, training opportunities, community events and general networking support.

Get involved today and benefit from keeping informed about what's going on in Carlton, collaborating on projects and promoting your programs and organisation.

Carlton Community Network respectfully acknowledges the Traditional Owners of the land, the Wurundjeri Woi Wurrung people of the Kulin Nation and we pay respect to their Elders past, present and future. As a network we value coming together to progress shared cultural understanding and a brighter future, both for our people and environment. We acknowledge the overwhelmingly positive contribution First Australian communities bring to the Carlton area. We understand that sovereignty was never ceded in Australia and support Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander's traditional custodianship that promotes that this always was and always will be Aboriginal land. As a network we commit to the importance of healing.
